| Algerian, Arabic-speaking | Algeria | As Muslims, they believe that they must please Allah by obeying the right laws. | Because urbanization settles people and opens them to new ideas, reaching them in towns may be the best way to reach them. The gospel can be presented on social media, the JESUS Film, the Bible and audio recordings, which are available in Algerian Arabic. Some also speak Spanish, French and Standard Arabic, so other resources might be useful for showing them the way to the cross. |

| Algerian, Arabic-speaking | Burkina Faso | | |
| Algerian, Arabic-speaking | Canada | Almost all Algerian Arabs are Sunni Muslims, though not all of them practice Islam, especially in Canada. Some are more devout than others. They consider it strange that Christians believe that salvation can come from something other than your own good works of obedience. | Those who follow Christ could see Him glorified among Algerian Arab Muslims by helping them develop useful job skills in Canada. There is religious freedom in Canada, so Algerian Arab Muslims could hear and respond to the gospel in that nation. |
| Algerian, Arabic-speaking | Czechia | Islam provides a strong deterrent to following Jesus Christ. Algerian families are strong, and so are their communities, even in foreign lands like Czechia. Muslim decision makers will seldom listen when someone says they want to follow Jesus. They believe that this is abandoning Islam and their communities. There are heavy penalties for those who chose to do so. | Algerians in Czechia are not political or war refugees, but they need to find a home where they can make a decent living. Perhaps believers with the right skills can teach them computer skills and other things that would make them valuable employees in Europe. |
| Algerian, Arabic-speaking | Denmark | It is difficult for people from the Arab World to assimilate into Danish society. They come from a part of the world with a different language, religion. and customs. They can use | Islam is a strong barrier to the gospel. Algerian Arabs are taught at an early age that the Bible has been corrupted through the centuries, and that the teachings of the Koran are the perfect |
